

Announcing a

PUBLIC MEETING

on the Restoration of the Historic Granite Overlooks and Storrow Lagoon Coping
in the Esplanade

Tuesday, November 14, 2006 at 6:30 PM

Shriners' Hospital Auditorium
51 Blossom Street
Boston, Massachusetts

The Department of Conservation and Recreation (DCR) is preparing a plan to restore the historic granite works along the Charles River in the Esplanade. Commissioners Landing, the overlooks at Dartmouth and Gloucester Streets, and the Storrow Lagoon coping are in need of repair. DCR will outline its plans for temporary and long-term improvements through this project.
